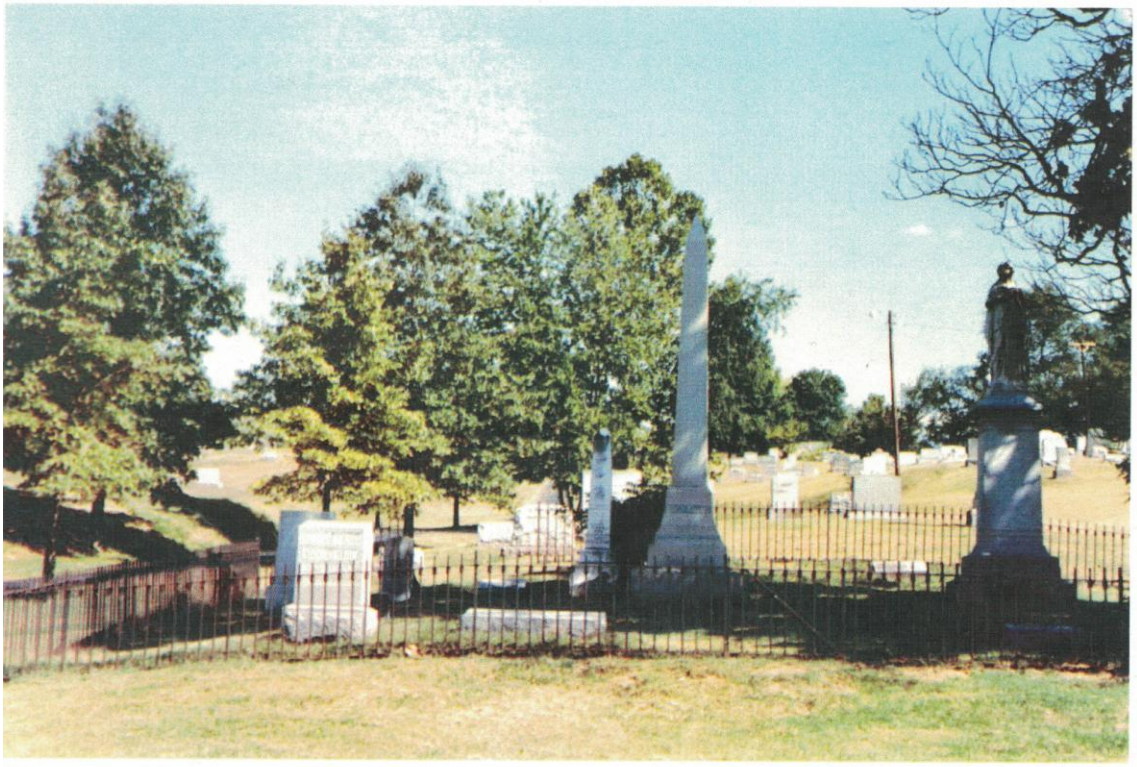
Ohio County, Kentucky
Obituary Index

(1920-1980)



Compiled by

Jerry Long

The following is from the book, Ohio County. Kentucky Obituary Index (1920-1980), by Jerry Long (Utica, KY: McDowell Publications, 2004, reprinted 2009). The volume is the third of a three volume set indexing the obituaries and death notices found in the Ohio County newspapers. On the cover of the book (preceding page) is photograph of the Pendleton family lot in Oakwood Cemetery, Hartford, KY.

This volume indexes the obituaries and death notices found in the newspapers of Ohio County, Kentucky for the years of 1920-1980. Other volumes of this series index the death notices found for the periods of 1873-1899 and 1900-1919. Approximately 39,000 deaths are chronicled in the three volumes of this series.

Despite not being a native of Ohio County I have many ties to the county. My father was born there and growing up I spent time on my grandparent's Ohio County farm. I became a student of the county's history when I embarked on a journey into genealogy in 1979. I have previously published several sources on Ohio County, including the 1810 to 1840 censuses, numerous cemetery listings and articles on various families of the county. I commenced systematically listing the county's death notices when I began searching the newspapers for the death of my great-great-grandmother. I never found that notice but I did learn a wealth of information about numerous other relatives and the history of the county.

I believe this represents a true history of Ohio County since individuals comprise the fabric of history. Newspapers are a time capsule and possibly are our most insightful portrait into history. I first began compiling this index in 1984. The Ohio County Public Library permitted me to check out their original bound volumes and microfilms of their newspapers and take them to the Kentucky Room of the Daviess County Public Library. I also borrowed other microfilms from the University of Kentucky and viewed them on my home reader. I went through the issues slowly page by page and year by year. I later rechecked many of the older years with the morgue of county newspaper files at the Ohio County Times-News office in Hartford.

While working with the old newspapers I was instrumental in the microfilming of seven years of the "Hartford Herald" (1875-1880 & 1885) that had never been available to the public. These first years of the "Herald" had been retained by the newspaper's original owners and were passed down through the Barrett family. In 1991 I visited Mrs. Lyman (Elizabeth) Barrett, who then had these original years and entreated her to preserve these valuable files by allowing them to be microfilmed. She subsequently donated them to the University of Kentucky, who microfilmed them and made them available to other repositories. I also came close to succeeding in having the first four years of the Beaver Dam newspaper, "Ohio County Messenger" (1930-1933) microfilmed for the first time. These four years were available only at the "Ohio County Times-News" office in Hartford. The owner of the newspaper allowed me to take them to the University of Kentucky for microfilming. When I first published my "Ohio County Obituary Index 1920-1980" in 2004 I announced that these years where soon to be microfilmed. However, soon after I published this the microfilming was suspended due to funding. I returned the newspapers to their owners and as of this printing they still have not been filmed.

Newspapers Indexed and Format

This volume indexes the obituaries and death notices found in the newspapers of Ohio County for the years of 1920-1980. During this period there were six different newspapers published in Ohio County. In 1920-1926 there were two papers – the "Hartford Herald" (began in 1875) and the "Hartford Republican" (began in 1888). In 1926 these two were merged to become the "Ohio County News". The first issue of the "News" was 19 February 1926. On 21 March 1930 the "Ohio County Messenger" began publishing at Beaver Dam. In 1965 a third newspaper, the "Ohio County Times", joined the "News" and "Messenger". The first issue of the "Times" was on 23 September 1965. In 1980 the "News" and "Times" merged to become the "Ohio County Times-News". The first issue of the "Times-News" was on 30 October 1980 and today it is the only remaining newspaper in the county. The last issue of the "Ohio County Messenger" was published on 29 September 2004.

This index was compiled from microfilms of the original newspapers available at the Ohio County Public Library in Hartford, the "Ohio County Times-News" office in Hartford or the University of Kentucky. The Ohio County Library has microfilms of the "Hartford Herald" (1875-1926), "Hartford Republican" (1891-1926), "Ohio County News" (1926-1980), "Ohio County Messenger" (1934-1973) and "Ohio County Times-News" (1980-to present). In bound volumes the Ohio County Library also has the following "Ohio County News" (1959-1971), "Ohio County Times" (1965-1980) and "Ohio County Times-News" (1980-2001).

In the following index a few dates are followed by an * which indicates that particular issue (or page) is missing from the microfilms but the original was found at the "Ohio County Times-News" office in Hartford. The "Times-News" has copies of the "Hartford Herald" (1881-1884, 1886-1926), "Hartford Republican" (1891-1926), "Ohio County News" (1926-1980), "Ohio County Times" (1965-1980), "Ohio County Messenger" (1930-2004) and "Ohio County Times-News" (1980-to present). The "Times-News" at this writing has the first four years, 1930-1933, of the "Ohio County Messenger" that have never been microfilmed and are available nowhere else.

In this index the issue date (in form of month, day & year) is followed by a letter code for the newspaper that it appeared in (codes are found on the following page). Many of the entries in this index, especially for the years prior to 1950, are not for separate obituaries but are death notices or references to funerals that were found in the community columns. Many of these items are very brief, some just a couple of sentences. I went at a deliberate pace and tried to pick out all of these that I could find but I possibly missed a few. If you discover any that were missed in this index please let me know and I will add them to the database.

At the end of the volume there is a cross index of maiden or previous married names for females. All soldiers who died during World War II, Korean War or Vietnam War are also added to this cross index.

[On pages 477-480 there are four pages of additions and corrections to the first edition of the volume published in 2004 and added to the 2009 reprint.]

Missing Issues

The following issues are missing from the microfilms of that year. Some of the issues were located in the bound volumes at the "Ohio County Times-News office in Hartford, KY. Others were not and apparently were missing at the time of microfilming. The obituaries found in the missing issues that were located at the newspaper office were included in this index. These missing issues in the index were indicated by an * following the obituary date and newspaper code. In the list below a "Y" indicates that issue was located at the "Times-News" office and is included in the index and a "N' indicates they were not.
