A History of the Daviess – Mclean Baptist Association in Kentucky, 1844-1943, Rev. Wendell H. Rone, 1943, pp235-237:

MT. CARMEL BAPTIST CHURCH

This church was organized at Hewlett's School House near the present site of Buford, Ohio County, Kentucky, on April 13, 1849. The presbytery was composed of Elders J. M. Bennett, Richard Jones, and the venerable Thomas Downs. From the church record we learn that the constituent membership numbered forty, with most of these members coming from the Green Brier Church in Daviess County.

The names of the charter members are as follows: George Richeson, Frances Richeson, Frances G. Collier, David S. Cox, Sabina S. Cox, Steven Walker, Ann Lorena Walker, James Newton, Frances Newton, Martha Newton, James F. Newton, Jane Hinton, Mary Bell, Thaddeus N. B. May, Parthenia May, Thomas Townsley, Malinda Townsley, Thomas Patton, Elizabeth D. Patton, Clement Knott, Lee Davis, Edna Davis, Samuel Guest, George W. L. Richeson, William D. T. Bell, Julia Ann French, Lousan Patton, Lucretia Patton, Henry Jewell, Eli Martin, Robert Hudson, Willis H. Bell, Daniel J. French, Ann French, William Wells. Allen Johnson, Martha Johnson, Mary E. Bell, George Hinton and Mary Patton.

Immediately after the organization of the Church, on the following day, Elder J. M. Bennett was elected pastor, D. S. Cox as clerk, and Bretheren James Hewlett, Allen Johnson, and David S. Cox as the first deacons. These deacons were ordained at this time. The church assumed the name Mt. Carmel. In the month of May, 1849, the church elected a committee to see about the erection of a house of worship. From that time on until Jul, 1852, the church seems to have been sorely divided over the location of a house, several sites having been adopted and then rejected. At this meeting the church met to consider the propriety of dissolving. This resulted in a new committee being appointed at the counsel of brethren from Bell's Run, Green Brier, and Bethabara. As a result a log house was soon completed at the foot of the hill near Buford on the road leading from Buford to Hartford. This house served the church until 1868 when a new church was erected on the site of the present house of worship. This no doubt is the present house of worship used by the church. Of course necessary repairs have been made throughout the years. The house is still in a good state of repair after 70 years of service.

From first to last the church was served by the following pastors and clerks during her stay in this Association: Pastors—J. M. Bennett, 1849-1850; K. G. Hay, 1850; Dempsey Fielding, 1851; Frederick Tanner, 1852-1853; John G. Howard, 1854-1855; Frederick Tanner, 1856-1858; J. M. Peay, 1859; J. M. Dawson, 1859-1863; James F. Austin, 1864-1868; Daniel E. Yeiser, 1869-1872; B. Y. Cundiff, 1873-1874; J. S. Coleman, 1875-1877; J. D. Arnold, 1878; J. S. Coleman, 1879-1887; B. F. Jenkins, 1888-1889; C. T. Daniel, 1890; E. J. Maddox, 1891-1894; J. N. Jarnigan, 1895-1903; R. T. Bruner, 1903-1905; Clerks —David S. Cox, 1849-1888; C. L. Fields, 1888-1891; M. J. Cox, 1891-1905.

The clerkship of David S. Cox was for a period of almost forty years with slight intermission. M. J. Cox continued to serve until 1912, a period of twenty-one years.

This church has been blessed with several good revival meetings which meant much in building up the cause. Members have been dismissed to help constitute Pleasant Ridge and other churches.

Soon after her organization the church became a member of the Daviess County Association. This fellowship was consistently sustained until the year 1905 when the church withdrew to become a member of the Ohio County Association to which she still belongs. The pastorate of Dr. J. S. Coleman greatly increased the usefulness of the church in numbers and finances. Over 105 were added to the membership in 1874 as the result of a revival conducted by Elders Coleman and J. M. Peay.

Owensboro Messenger, Owensboro, KY, Friday, 22 April 1949, p2B:

MT. CARMEL Baptist church's new building, above, will be dedicated Sunday as the 100th anniversary of the founding of the church is observed. The Rev. James A. McCamish, left, is present pastor. The Rev. Robert Lashbrook, Nashville, right, under whose pastorate the new building was started, will deliver the dedication sermon.
Buford, Ky., April 21.—The Mt. Carmel Baptist church, located near here, will observe its 100th anniversary and will dedicate its new building in services to be held next Sunday, April 24. The church, of which the Rev. James A. McCamish is now pastor, was organized on April 13, 1849 at Hullet's schoolhouse at or near Buford, with charter members coming principally from Greenbrier church from which they were dismissed to form Mt. Carmel. After three years of worshipping in the school building the church erected its own first structure—a one room building made of logs and covered with three foot boards. Its one room was 30 by 36 feet. The old log building was used as a dwelling after the second building, of frame construction, was completed in 1868. It also had one room, and was used until 1946. It was torn down as the present building went up. The new building is double the	size of the first one—36 by 60 feet—is constructed of concrete blocks and in addition to its auditorium has 11 Sunday school rooms, eight of them in the basement and three above ground. An assembly room and furnace room also are located in the basement. Only cost of the new building was about $12,000. Much labor and material were donated. The church has had 31 pastors. They were, with the years of their appointments: J. M. Bennett, April 13, 1849; Dempsey Fielding, 1850; John G. Howard, 1854; F. Tanner, 1856; James M. Dawson, 1859; J. T. Austin, 1863; D. E. Yeizer, 1869; B. Y. Cundiff, 1873; J. S. Colman, 1874; G. D. Arnold, 1878; J. S. Colman, 1880; B. F. Jenkins, 1888; C. T. Daniel, 1890; E. P. Maddox, 1891; J. N. Jarnagan, 1894; R. T. Bruner, 1903; O. M. Shultz, 1906; Norris Lashbrook, 1909; J. A. Bennett, 1911; Norris Lashbrook, 1914; R. E. Fuqua, 1915; J. C. Craig,	1920; D. L. Dehart, 1922; C. S. Bratcher, 1926; W. S. Shipp, 1929; J. W. Simpson, 1930; L. P. Whitaker, 1932; C. J. Boyd, 1935; Renick Daily, 1941; Robert Lashbrook, 1942; James A. McCamish, 1948. The centennial and dedication program Sunday will open at 10 a. m. with Sunday school, followed by the morning service at 10:50. The Rev. Robert Lashbrook, Nashville, under whose pastorate the new building was started, will deliver the dedication sermon at 11:10 a. m. A basket dinner will be served at noon, and during the afternoon greetings from former pastors and the history of the church will be heard, with the anniversary sermon to be delivered at 2:30 p. m. by the Rev.
