

Blackford Baptist Church Cemetery

Hancock County, KY

By Jerry long

Picture taken by Jerry Long on 2 November 1981

On the Hawesville - Pellville Road about 4 ½ miles south of Hawesville and 4 miles north of Pellville, Ky.

Inscriptions in the cemetery were copied by Jerry Long on 14 & 28 May 1988 and rechecked on 27 September 1988. I added recent burials in November 2021. My original listing was done in two sections – older section behind church and the newer section in front of the church (on south side of driveway). In the following listing an o at the end of the line designates a monument in the older section and an n designates newer section. Names indented are on same stone as preceding person(s) and have same last name. I compared my reading of the monuments with listings made by Daniel Lynn Bolin in 1974 (Church Cemeteries of Meade, Breckinridge, and Hancock Counties, Kentucky, Volume III (Utica, KY: McDowell Publications, 79-89), and 1973 listing published by West-Central Kentucky Family Research Association (Hancock County, Kentucky Cemeteries Volume 1, Owensboro, KY: McDowell Publications, 1-10). Where there were differences I rechecked the monuments to get a correct listing. Annotations were made by adding complete dates of birth & death, full names and maiden names when identified from other sources; maiden names were placed in brackets. The listing is followed by a list of individuals who were documented to be buried in unmarked graves.

Notes on the History of Blackford Baptist Church By Jerry Long

The Blackford Baptist Church is near the creek for which it was named. The church was organized in 1825 in what was then Breckinridge County. It was associated with the Goshen Baptist Association, which met at the church for the first time in 1844. It participated in organizing the Blackford Missionary Baptist Association in 1877 and has remained active in that organization. At least three buildings have housed the congregation, the most recent being a new brick edifice.

Blackford was constituted in 1825 with 21 members by Elders Thomas Downs, David Jerrel Kelley, William Moorman, and Ansell (Ancil) Hall. The site of the original church is uncertain. No record was found of the date when the first church house was built at the present site. The church and graveyard were at its present location by 1832. George Washington Bruner (c1781-1851) & his wife, Polly, sold for five dollars 1 & 1/2 acres on 15 December 1832 to William Moorman, John T. Bruner & John Snider, trustees of the Blackford Creek meeting house of the United Baptist Church (Hancock County deed book 2, p263). The land included the Blackford meeting house and a graveyard. The southern boundary of the land had been the original line between the lands of the said Bruner and John Snider. The earliest death date found on the monuments in the cemetery is for Harriet S. Bruner, who died at the age of five on 16 December 1838; she was the daughter of Peter B. Bruner (1806-1879) & Hannah Davis and granddaughter of George W. Bruner (c1781-1851). Elder Thomas Newton was said to be the first pastor of the church. In 1831 he was the pastor, and the messengers to the Goshen Association were William Moorman, John Snider, and Martin Young, Membership that year was 43. By 1838 the pastor was still Thomas Newton, John Snyder was the messenger and membership was 47. The church in the early 1900's contained one room with a large potbelly coal stove in the center. The church exterior was bricked in 1971.

George Washington Bruner (c1781-1851), who sold the property to the church lived on the farm on the north side of the Blackford Church & Cemetery. He and his wife, Mary (Davis) Bruner (c1796-1851) are buried a short distance from the church and their former home. Their home stood just off of the Hawesville-Pellville Road at the northeast corner of the cemetery. This writer's 3rd great-grandmother, Ruth Bruner Hale (1825-1919), was born in the house. In recent years the home was owned by James Voyles (1903-1983), a great-grandson of Ruth Bruner Hale. The original home was built with large logs. James Voyles purchased the property in 1939; he added siding to the log-structure and additional rooms on the back of the house. On 19 May 1980 at the invitation of Mr. Voyles I stayed all night at the home and was his guest at the annual reunion at the church on 1 June 1980. Present at the reunion were many of my relatives thru the Bruner, Hale, Snider and Young families. Present were several great-grandchildren of William Hale & Ruth Bruner, including Katie Glover Brandle (1889-1982), the oldest member of the church, James Voyles (1903-1982) and Rev. Henry William Schafer (1916-1990). Rev. Schafer, a former pastor of the Blackford Church, gave an inspirational talk. In 1986 the Voyles home was dismantled.

"Blackford Association" from book, A History of Kentucky Baptists: From 1769 to 1885, Vol. II, by J. H. Spencer (Cincinnati, OH, 1885), 645646:

This flourishing community is located in Hancock, Ohio, and some of the adjoining counties. It was constituted at Bethlehem meetinghouse in Hancock county, on the 30th of November, 1877, of the following fourteen churches, which had been dismissed from the old Goshen confederacy, for the purpose: Pisgah, Mt. Pleasant, Blackford, Union, Hawesville, Bethlehem, Pleasant Grove, Zion, Lewis Port, Friendship, Mt. Eden, Sandy Creek, Pleasant Valley and Roseville. The ministers belonging to these churches were Martin Young, H. V. Bruner, L. C. Tichenor, J. E. Stone, Calvin Voyles, Robert T. Bruner and J. J. Keown. The next year, Panther Creek, Yelvington, Pellville, Chestnut Grove and Pleasant Ridge churches, with Elder R. R. Gabbert, were added to the Association.

One of the first acts of this Association was the appointment of a missionary board, consisting of Robert T. Bruner, George W. Brown and Wm. T. Smith, the duty of which was to make provisions for supplying the destitute within the bounds of the fraternity, with preaching. The next year, the body appointed committees to report on Home Missions, Orphans' Home, State Missions, Foreign Missions, Sabbath schools and Temperance. These objects of benevolence have been fostered by the Association, to the present time. The body has enjoyed uninterrupted harmony, and a high degree of prosperity. It began with fourteen churches, aggregating 1,320 members. In 1880, it reported twenty-one churches with 2,264 members, and, in 1882, twenty-four churches with 2,508 members. During the first five years of its existence, it reported 725 baptisms.

Martin Young was the oldest minister in this body. Of his early life nothing has been learned He was an ordained minister at Cloverport, Ky., as early as 1837, and, for many years after, was an humble preacher within the bounds of Goshen Association. He had become too old and feeble, before his church entered into the constitution of Blackford Association; but he was much beloved by the brethren for his past labors; and his simple, unaffected piety. The Lord called him home, at a great old age, in 1882.

R. R. Gabbert filled the office of deacon in Pellville church a number of years, and was ordained to the ministry, in the spring of 1878. About one year afterwards, April 24, 1879, he committed suicide, in a fit of mental aberation, doubtless at his home in Pellville, Hancock county. At the time of his death he was pastor of Mt. Pleasant and Zion churches, and was held in high esteem as a citizen of integrity, a Christian of earnest piety, and a pastor of excellent gifts.

Robert T. Bruner has been a leading minister in this body, from its constitution. He entered the ministry, about 1857, and has been a very laborious and successful preacher, to the present time, both as a missionary and as a pastor. He was moderator of Blackford Association, at its first three meetings.

Wm. H. Dawson, of whom something has been said in the history of Daviess County Association, was a member of that body, before his removal to Rockport, Ia.

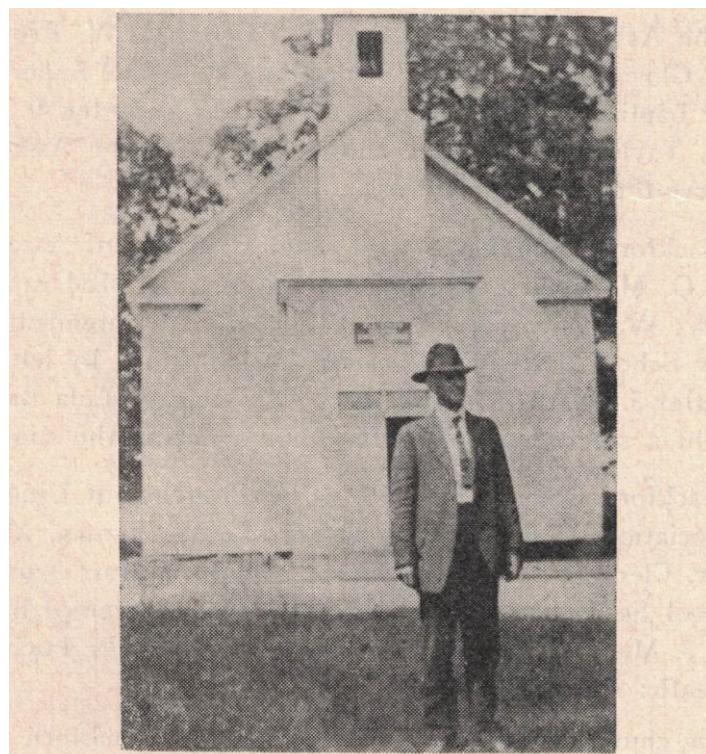

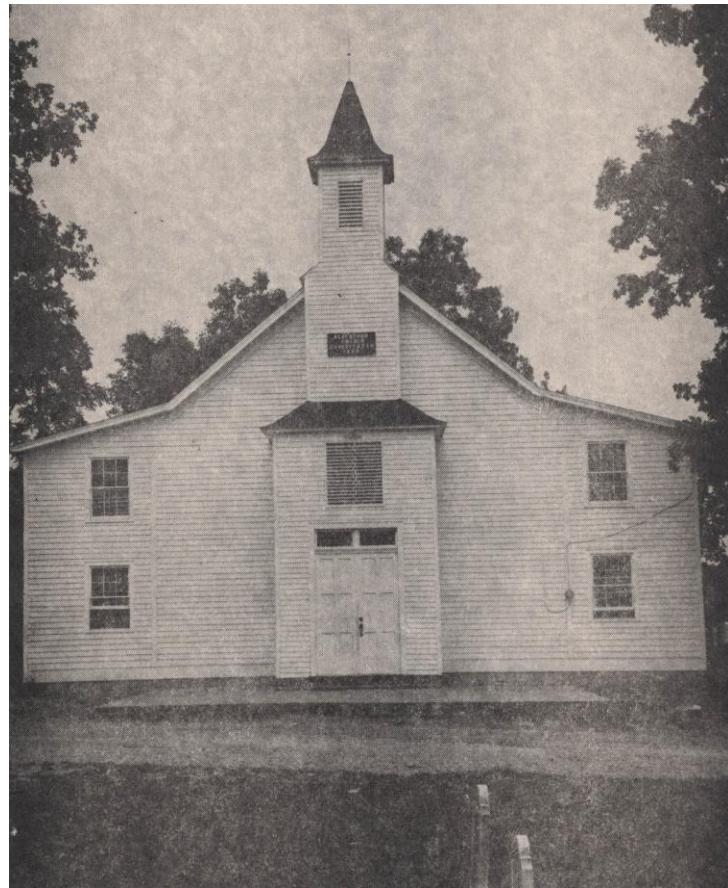

Of several other useful preachers in this fraternity, no particular account has been received.
