5th great-grandparents

Jeremiah Duvall (1750-1832) & Sarah Penn (1740-1803)

John Wesley Duvall was the son of Dr. Jeremiah Duvall & Sarah Penn. Dr. Jeremiah Duvall was born 23 July 1750 Prince George's County, MD and died 12 February 1832 Six Mile Run, Bedford County, PA. His wife, Sarah Penn was born 17ss Anne Arundel County, MD and died 1803 Bedford County, MD; she was the daughter of Benjamin Penn & Dinah Acton, many of their ancestors have been identified. Dr. Jeremiah * Sarah Duvall were buried Duvall Cemetery, Coaldale, Bedford County, PA.

Duvall Cemetery, Coaldale, Bedford County, PA

Jeremiah Duvall was a physician, minister of the Gospel, slave owner, and wealthy land owner. In 1778, he subscribed to the Oath of Allegiance in Prince George's County, MD. He was a Revolutionary War veteran. Dr. Duvall patented a large tract of land in Bedford County, PA and with his family led a band of about 30 families (including many of the Cheney family) from Ann Arundel County, MD to Bedford County, PA. about 1787. He was (1) married to Elizabeth Jacobs and (2) Sarah Penn on July 23, 1752 in Queene Ann's Parish, Prince Georg'se County, MD. He became a well known country doctor in Bedford County & later instructed his son in the art of medicine. His will, dated April 19, 1830, bequeathed to his eldest son, Benjamin P. & eldest daughter, Mary W. Fenner, one dollar each; one dollar each to Neoma & John W. Duvall; to his son, Asa, he gave the tract of land on which he lived containing 75 acres, reserving the use of the dwelling house to his two daughters, Anne & Sarah Duval. The drugs from his medical practice were to be equally divided among Asa, Anna & Sarah. He left the family Bible to the Bethel Meeting House where he preached.

6th great-grandparents

Benjamin Duvall (1711-1803) & Mary Wells (1715-1803)

Dr. Jeremiah Duvall was the son of Benjamin Duvall & Mary Wells. Benjamin Duvall was born 4 April 1711 Maryland City, Anne Arundel County, MD and died 11 December 1803 Prince George's County, MD. He married Mary Wells, 5 June 1738 South River Hundred, Anne Arundel County, MD. Mary was born 12 August 1815 Queen Anne, Prince George's County, MD and died 8 December 1803 Prince George's County, MD.

7th great-grandparents

Mareen Duvall, The Younger (c1680-1741) & Elizabeth Jacob (1683-1752)

Benjamin Duvall was the son of Mareen Duvall, the Younger, was born about 1680 in Anne Arundel County, Md. Called "the Younger" to distinguish him from an older half-brother also named Mareen. On October 21, 1701 he married Elizabeth Jacob in Anne Arundel County. They resided at "the Great Marsh", in Prince George's County near the Anne Arundel and Prince George's County line. "The Great Marsh" was a 300 acre plantation ("the Plains") which he had inherited from his father. To Mareen Duvall, the Younger, and Elizabeth Jacob eleven children were born: Mareen, Susannah, Elizabeth, Samuel, Anne, Benjamin, John, Jacob, Mary, Lewis and Gabriel, their births were recorded in the parish register of Queen Anne's Parish in Prince George's County.

Mareen Duvall, the Younger died 7 June 1741 Prince George's County, MD. He wrote his will on December 9, 1740 and it was recorded in Prince George's County on June 9, 1741. The following abstract of his will is from Baldwin's Maryland Calendar of Wills, Vol. VIII, p.130:

Duval, Mareen, Sr., At the Great Marsh, A. A. Co., 9th December 1740; 9th June, 1741.

" wife Elizabeth, extx., legal rights.

Test; Mark Brown, William Clark, Rev. Jacob Henderson.

22. 344.

Elizabeth Jacob, wife of Mareen Duvall, was the daughter of John Jacob and Anne Cheney; several of their ancestors have been identified. Elizabeth Jacob was born 24 October 1683 South River Towers and died 27 February 1752 Queen Anne Knolls, Prince George's County, MD; she wrote her will on December 4, 1750 and it was probated in Prince George's County on February 27, 1752. Her father Capt. John Jacob in 1665 came from Kent, England and settled in Anne Arundel County, Md. (The Early Settlers of Maryland, Skordas). He was a tobacco planter and an extensive land owner. Anne was the daughter of Richard Cheney (Chaney, Cheyney, Cheiney) who immigrated to Maryland in 1658 (The Early Settlers of Maryland, Skordas). In 1660 Richard Chaney was granted a patent for "Chaney's Neck" on the South River in Anne Arundel County. The following abstract of Richard Cheiney's will is from Baldwin's Maryland Calendar of Wills, Vol. II, p.27:

8th great-grandparents

Mareen Duvall (1627-1684) & Susanna Marie Brassieur (1652-1692)

Mareen Duvall, The Younger, was the son of Mareen Duvall & Susanna Marie Brassieur. Mareen Duvall, a Huguenot, was born 1627 Lval, Normandy, France and died 5 August 1694 Anne Arundel County, MD. In 1659 Mareen Duvall emigrated from Nantes, France and settled on the south side of South River in Anne Arundel County, Maryland (The Early Settlers of Maryland, Skordas). His arrival in Maryland followed only 25 years after the first settlers of Maryland came over on the Ark and the Dove, 39 years after the Pilgrims sailed on the Mayflower and 52 years after the first settlement in the American Colonies was made at Jamestown.

Mareen Duvall, the immigrant, was the son of Thomas Duvall and Nicola Stagard and was born in Normandy, France (Register of Maryland's Heraldic Families, Vol. I, p.235). In Normandy his ancestry has been traced to the 8th century. The old "Chateau de La Val" in Normandy, the ancestral home of the Duvall family, was commenced in the 9th century (picture published in Mareen Duvall of Middle Plantation, Newman, 1952). After settling on South River, in Maryland Mareen Duvall named his homestead "La Val" after the family estates in France. In Anne Arundel County, Md. Mareen Duvall became one of the county's most prominent and wealthiest merchants and planters, owning an estate of several thousand acres.

Mareen Duvall was transported in 1659 by Colonel William Burgess. About the time of his immigration or shortly afterwards he was married, one of his older sons, Mareen ("the Elder") was born about 1661, Mareen Duvall was married three times. His first wife's name is unknown, by this marriage he had at least five children:

1. Mareen, the Elder, born about 1661 in Anne Arundel County, Md., married Frances Stockett, died in 1730's.
2. John married Elizabeth Jones.
3. Lewis married Martha Ridgely 5 March 1699, died 1724 in South Carolina.
4. Samuel, born about 1667 in Anne Arundel County, Md., married Mrs. Elizabeth (Ijams) Clarke 16 July 1697, died 1741 in Prince George's County, Md.
5. Eleanor married John Roberts before 1694.

Mareen Duvall's first wife died and he married second, Susanna Marie Brassieur (1652-1692), who was the daughter of Benjamin Benois Brassieur & Mary Bressier Richford.

To Mareen and Susannah the following children were born:

6. Susannah, born about 1677, married Robert Tyler before 1694.
7. Mareen, the Younger, born about 1680 in Anne Arundel County, Md., married Elizabeth Jacob 21 October 1701, died 1741.
8. Catherine married William Orrick 22 October 1700.
9. Mary, born about 1682, married Rev. Henry Hall 5 February 1701.
10. Elizabeth married Abraham Clarke after 1694.
11. Johanna, born about 1685, married Richard Poole 12 August 1703.
12. Benjamin married Sophia Griffith in 1713.

Mareen Duvall married a third time to Mary, it is not believed they had any children. Several earlier sources state she was Mary Stanton (The Founders of Anne Arundel and Howard Counties, Maryland, 1905, p.106) but Harry Wright Newman in his book Mareen Duvall of Middle Plantation, 1952, concluded that this was not correct. Following the death of Mareen Duvall, Mary, married the powerful Colonel Henry Ridgely (between 1694-1700) and sometime following 1710 she became the wife of Rev. Jacob Henderson. She was buried beside Rev. Henderson in a vault at the chapel in Darnell's Grove in Queen Anne's Parish graveyard, Prince George's County, Md. Her monument bears the inscription: "Here lieth the body of Mary, wife of Rev. Jacob Henderson, who departed this life ye 19 January 1735."

Mareen Duvall died 5 August 1694. On the 2 August 1694 he wrote his will and eleven days later on 13th of August it was recorded in Anne Arundel County. No monument marking the grave of Mareen Duvall survives, but his final resting place was reported to have been a few miles northeast of the Governor Bridge on the Patuxent River. The Patuxent River was the boundary between the counties of Anne Arundel, on the north and east, and Prince George's, on the south and west

The following abstract of Mareen Duvall's will was published in Baldwin's Maryland Calendar of Wills, Vol. II, pp.76-77

Duvall, Mareen, A. A. Co., 2nd Aug., 1694; 13th Aug., 1694.

(note: "Middle Plantation" was Mareen Duavll's home plantation, the plantations "Bowdell's Choice", "Howerton's Range" and "The Plains" in Calvert County in 1695 became part of the newly formed county of Prince George's; "The Plains" was also called "Wilson's Plains" and "The Great Marsh").

Harry Wright Newman, published a book entitled Mareen Duvall of Middle Plantation, 590 well documented pages on Mareen Duvall and his descendants. Mareen Duvall's family is also chronicled in many other books, including Colonial Families of the United States of America, 1607-1775 (1907) and The Founders of Anne Arundel and Howard Counties, Maryland (J. D. Warfield, 1905). Numerous descendants of Mareen Duvall were influential public officials and esteemed citizens. Many have become nationally known and have left their names etched in the history of this country. One of the most celebrated descendants bearing the Duvall name was Gabriel Duval (1752-1844), an associate Justice of the U.S. Supreme Court. He was the son of Benjamin Duvall & Susanna Tyler, grandson of Benjamin Duvall & Sophie Griffith and a great-grandson of Mareen Duvall, the immigrant.

9th great-grandparents

Thomas Duvall (1570-1640) & Nicola Stagard (1597-1640)

Mareen Duvall, The Immigrant, was the son of Thomas Duvall who was born and died in Normandy, France. Thomas married c1627 Nicola Stagard. Several family trees identify previous generations of the Duvall family in France, but they vary in the names cited.
