

Civil War Draft Registrations in Daviess County

By Jerry Long

During the Civil War by 1863 it became necessary for the federal government to enroll and draft men into the Union Army. The Conscription Act enacted 3 March 1863 declared that men between the ages of 20 and 45 were eligible for duty. Aliens who had filed their declaration of intention to become citizens were also eligible. The draft lasted until 1865, when the war ended. The records are part of Record Group 110 Records of the Provost Marshal General's Bureau. There were four drafts between 1863 and 1865, which included 3.175 million records. In July 1863, the army carried out the first of four drafts; the next three followed in 1864.

All males, including colored residents, between 20 and 45 were subjected to the draft. The following were exempt: men who were mentally or physically impaired; the only son of a widow; the son of infirm parents; and a widower with dependent children. A few paid a substitute to serve for them. The going price was around $300, but quickly went to $1,100 or more.

These records include 631 volumes of registries and are basically lists of individuals who registered for the draft. The records are split into two different classes, Class I are those aged 20-35 as well as those 36-45 and unmarried. Class II is everyone else that registered.

Enrollees had their names placed on consolidated lists. The lists are arranged by state, then by congressional district, and then alphabetically by the first letter of the surname. The lists give name, county & state of residence, age as of 1 July 1863, race, occupation, marital status, place of birth (state or country), former military service, and in a few cases additional remarks. The remarks included – over age; dead; in service; physical disability; and non resident (many upon emancipation emigrated elsewhere).

The individual entries may include other comments; such as in the case of colored enrollees their (slave) owners may be listed. The lists do not include information about the men's families. The colored enrollees were registered under the surname of their slave owners and not all subsequently selected that surname to be their own.

The consolidated lists show those men that were enrolled in the draft but give no clue as to whether or not they actually subsequently served in the Army or not. Of the almost 2.5 million men enrolled in the draft, only 5.54 percent were drafted. Nineteen colored registrants in Daviess County, KY were listed as then serving in the military; they were:

Thomas Barron	William Hode	Timothy Thruston
Sandy Bransford	Henry Hopkins	William Thruston
Wilson Bransford	Edmund Mahan	Calvin Watkins
Dave Carlin	Harrison May	Cato Watkins
Dick Gilmore	Pat Mayo	Joseph Wellman
Chesterfield Griffith	Mark Smith
Aaron Hill	Edward Thomas

The four consolidated lists of registrants were labeled Volumes 1 thru 4. Only the Volume 4 list contained “Colored” residents of Daviess County, KY.

The following are the “Colored” residents of Daviess County, KY who were registered for the Civil War Draft:
