On 11 October 1832, Personally appeared before the Hon. Alney McLean, Judge of Daviess Circuit Court, now sitting, Zachariah Briant, a resident of said county, age 67, who being first duly sworn according to law both on his oath make the following declaration in order to obtain the benefit of the provision made by the acts of Congress, granting pensions that he enlisted in the army of the U S 1779, in the regiment of Virginia State Troops, commanded by Col. Francis Taylor and served 2 years as follows: Early in 1779, this applicant then a resident of Amherst Co., VA. was enlisted for the term of 2 years by Capt. Lesfe? Allen, a recruiting officer, in said county and immediately marched to the Albemarle Barracks, where he remained in service until 1781, guarding British prisoners. He marched to Winchester Va., with said prisoners, and soon after their return to Barracks were honorably discharged, having served out the 2 years for which they were enlisted. The Colonel who remained and commanded at the Barracks was named Francis Taylor, a short period after his afore said discharge this applicant substituted for James Stewart, a militiaman drafted to go to the Seige of Cornwallis and in New Kent on the road he was enlisted for and during the war by a Captain Meeky and was a regular soldier and under furlough at the occasion of hostilities. This applicant has lost his discharge and will annex hereto the affidavit of John Briant in proof the two years service aforesaid. The said John Briant, having been a fellow soldier in the service and being now dead.

This applicant relinquishes every claim whatever to a pension or annuity except the present and declares that his name is not on the pension roll of any agency in any state. This applicant resided in Augusta Co., Va. during his aforesaid services and continued to reside there until about the year 1800 when he removed to Kentucky and resided in the counties of Mercer and Washington until the year 1812 or thereabouts, when he removed to his present residence in Daviess County.

He hereby relinquishes every claim whatever to a pension, except the present and declares his name is not on the pension roll of the agency of any state. Sworn to and subscribed in open court.

We, Joseph Hale and John Pinkston, clergyman residing in Daviess Co., do hereby certify that we are well acquainted with Zachariah Briant, who has subscribed and sworn to the above declaration that he believe him to be sixty seven years of age, that he is reputed and believed in the neighborhood where he resides to have been a soldier of the Revolution, and that we concur in that opinion. Sworn and subscribed the day and the year aforesaid. Joseph Hale and John Pinkston.

Joseph Hale and John Pinkston and the said court do hereby declare their opinion after the investigation of the matter and after putting the interrogations prescribed by the War Department, that the above named applicant was a Revolutionary Soldier and served as he states and the court further certifies that it appears to them, that John Pinkston, who has signed the preceding certificate is a clergyman resident in Daviess County and that Joseph Hale, who has also signed the same is a resident of said county and is a creditable person and their statement is entitled to credit. I__ Allen and was commanded by Col. Francis Taylor and that he well remembers that the said Zachariah Briant enlisted during the war under Capt. Meeky, in Albemarle or Louisa, and received a furlough, which was not expired when peace was made.

Given under my hand and seal, this 9th day of April 1832, William Carter. Test; Creed Burton.

I certify that the name of Zachariah Briant appears as a private on an original muster roll of Capt. James Burton's camp, attached to a regiment of guards at the Barracks in Albemarle County, Va., commanded by Col. Francis Taylor, which muster roll is on file in this office in connection with other papers relating to a claim for land by the heirs of the aforesaid Capt. Burton.

It further appears by the column of remarks on said roll that Zachariah Briant enlisted on the 17th of February 1779.

Application for transfer. State of Indiana, County of Spencer. On this 26th February 1837, before me, the subscriber, a justice of the peace for the said county of Spencer, personally appeared Zachariah Briant, who, on his oath declares that he is the same person, who formerly belonged to the company commanded by Capt. Burton, in the regiment commanded by Col. Francis Layton to the service of the U.S. that his name was placed on the pension roll of the state of Kentucky, from whence he lately removed and that he now resides in the state of Indiana, where he intends to remain and wished his pension to be there payable in the future.

Mildred Field makes affidavit for the purpose of drawing the additional amount over and above the said sum of $289.32, which she is entitled to under said acts, and the additional sum due her said husband, under act of 7 June 1832, from the 4 March 1831, to 3 January 1842, the day on which he died. As to the proof of this death and services reference in herewith made to the evidence on file in the Pension Dept. in the case of his and her original applications. She continued to be a widow and now resides in Daviess Co., Ky. and has resided there for 4 years past and previous to that resided in Ohio Co., Ky.

Sworn to and subscribed 15 May 1852 before Thomas T. Davis, wit; Wm. Newton, Wm. B. Hall, certifies Thomas Davis is an acting Justice of the peace and signatures are genuine. 19 May 1852.

Benjamin Field has been receiving the sum of $289.32 per annum under Law of Congress passed 7 June 1832, but when the amount of said half - pay was paid to said officer, then the amount which had been received under said law of 7 June 1832, and deducted therefrom which therefore, left said officer in receipt only of his half -pay and not one cent of pension under the law of 7 June 1832, the whole of which pension was due said officer at his death. Consequently now due this declarant. The commissioner of pension informed her attorney C. H. Trabue of Frankfort, Ky., that half pay and pension could not be due to the same officer at the same time, but declarant is informed that some short time back the Hon. Secretary of War decided that certain officers of the State line of Va., were entitled to both half and pension and that both of which was due to the same officer at one and the same time and as her said husband was not in receipt of one cent of pension under the Act of Congress passed 7 June 1832, at his death, he having been paid half only, she is informed and believes that the same is due to her as said widow and her only. Benjamin Field, served many years as a commanding officer as she verily believes and became entitled to land bounty for his services. As said officer, from the state of Virginia, and did receive or was allowed in 1832, bounty land for 3 years since as Capt. to the quantity of 4000 acres and was allowed thereafter as declarant has been advised a quantity connections with above quantity that was to equal $533.33, and which was made to him as a Major and her said husband was allowed in July 1838, his half for his service in said state line of Virginia, and said army and which as granted him at the rate of $300. per annum, commencing 22 April 1783, and to the evidence upon which the aforesaid bounties in land were granted and the service upon which the allowance of said half-pay was granted, she presuming the whole to be under the inspection of the proper officers, will infer for the character of the service performed by her said husband, its duration and the officer under whom it was performed together with such other facts as may be contained in said evidence in proof of her claim. She declares she has no documentary evidence in favor of her claim and declares her said husband resided in Va. when he entered the service, and she thinks in Culpepper County, Va. - she was married to Benjamin Field, 19 August 1790. He died 3 January 1842.

Henry Stevens and James Newton, certify the lack of physical strength and actual disability prevents Mildred Field from appearing in open court. Benjamin Field, received an allowance of 4000 acres as pay for 3 years service as Capt. in the said State Line of Virginia.

Randolph Robinson, an acting Justice of Peace of Graves County, states that General Elias Barbu, age 79, or 80, that he know Major Benjamin Field in the days of the Revolutionary War and that he was an officer under Colonel Clark and that in and about the year 1790, he married Miss Mildred Slaughter. He was married near Lincoln County Line and Mercer Co., Ky. Line, near the town of Danville, Kentucky; that they lived in peace and harmony since their marriage until his death.

James Jones – Pension File S31170

State of Kentucky, County of Daviess: Sct. On the 13th day of Mayh 1833 personally appeared before Samuel Hawes, Creed Burton, Elijah McCreery & William Medcalf Justices of the County Court of said County now sitting James Jones a resident of said County of Daviess & State aforesaid aged near Seventy-three years who being duly sworn according to law doth on his oath make the following declaration in order to obtain the benefit of the provisions made by the Act of Congress passed June 7th 1832. That he volunteered in the month of September 1778, in the County of Rowan North Carolina, as a private under Captain William Wilson, John Todd Lieutenant and Alexander Dobbins, Ensign. This Company was attached to Colonel Francis Locke's Regiment and General Rutherford's [Griffith Rutherford's] Brigade, we rendezvoused at Salisbury in North Carolina, from whence we marched under the above named officers through Mecklenburg County to Camden in South Carolina, from thence to the River Santee crossing the same at Nelson's ferry from thence to the Ten miles house from Charlestown [sic, Charleston], where we remained some days, from thence we marched to Purysburg on the Savannah River, where we joined General Lincoln [Benjamin Lincoln] and the Main Army, at this time the British Army were marching near the Savannah River in the State of Georgia, both armies remained for some time watching each other on opposite sides of the Savannah River. Captain Wilson was ordered from the Main Army & posted on a Lagoon, putting into the River Savannah between Tubler's ferry [Tubley's ?] & the Two Sisters ferry, and I was one of the guard sent with him, during the winter we had a skirmish with the British who were ascending up the Lagoon in boats, near a place called the White House where our Commissaries stores were deposited, from hence by a forced march we went up the Savannah to reinforce General Ash [sic, John Ashe], who was encamped on Briar Creek in Georgia, and we had reached the ferry at the Savannah River opposite where General Ashe was Encamped and heard the firing of the guns [Battle of Briar Creek, March 3, 1779] and a part of the Army had crossed, and we met Ashe on his retreat from the British Army, the whole Army then retreated back & encamped at the Two Sisters ferry where we remained some weeks, and from thence we marched to a place called Turkey Hill, where we remained until the 10th day of March 1779 when we were discharged from whence we however were marched by our Company officers back to our homes in Rowan County. I believe I received a discharge from Colonel Locke, but have long since lost it. In the summer & fall of the year 1780, I served a tour of three months in Mecklenburg County under the command of Thomas Cowan Captain, Lieutenant Samuel Knox and John Morrison Ensign, our Company were horsemen, the Colonels then present with the Army were Colonel Craig and Colonel Barringer, and General Morgan

[Daniel Morgan] who commanded the regulars was our Commander as well as now recollected during this tour we were scouting on several occasions, and we made an attack on the British at Polke's mill under the command of Captains Hart & Dixon. The British Army then occupied Mecklenburg Court house but before our discharge they retreated from Mecklenburg & marched back into South Carolina. Our time of three months having expired we marched back to Rowan County, our homes. I was honorably discharged by Captain Thomas Cowan & have lost the same. In the fall of the year 1781 I volunteered as a private in Rowan County three months under Captain Richard Simmons, Lieutenant Hoodsman & Ensign John Carson we joined the Army on the Pedee [River], our Company belonged to Colonel Smith's [Robert Smith's] Choir [sic, Corps] and General Rutherford was commander from thence we marched to a place called the Raft swamp where we defeated [Battle of Raft Swamp, October 15, 1781] a party of Tories said to be under the Command of Col. McNeel [sic, Hector McNeill], from thence we marched towards Wilmington leaving Fayetteville on the left till we arrived at a brick building opposite to Wilmington where there was a British Garrison, we defeated [The Battle of Brick House, November 15, 1781] a party of Tories near this place and attempted to storm the Garrison but failed for want of artillery. John Gay was killed at this place, our Commander was Colonel Smith, soon after this, Captain Richardson Simmons was ordered over the Cape Fear River and marched on the North East River which we swam on account of the British having burnt the end of the Bridge, and marched into Wilmington where we remained a few days & then we marched down Captain Fear [sic, Cape Fear River] to a place called the Sounds watching the British vessels which lay in Cape Fear River, here we remained until our three months had expired and we were then discharged & marched home.

This declarant further states that during the year 1780 & 1781 he served Seven tours as a minute man which averaged at the least 10 or 12 days each tour, against the Tories, sometimes called out by the Colonels, sometimes by the Captains – these tours were in Rowan & the adjoining Counties. I was two of the aforesaid Tours under Colonel Locke & Colonel Davidson [William Lee Davidson]. I was under Captain William Wilson on two of the preceding tours, on one of which we met Col. Buford [Abraham Buford] on his retreat, -- on to other of the aforesaid tours I was with Colonel Locke & Col. Brandon and marched as far as Broad River where Colonel McDowell [Charles McDowell] was camped. I was on one of these tours with General William Lee Davidson and we had a Severe skirmish with Cornwallis' Army at Cowan's Ford on the Catawba River, and General Davidson was killed at this place about the 1st day of February 1781 as well as this respondent now recollects. This declarant served several other minute tours which he does not enumerate, & claim pay for, but states that in the tours & campaigns before herein specified he Served faithfully fourteen months & upwards, for which he asks for pay. This applicant States that he was born in York County, Pennsylvania in the year 1760 & removed to, Settled in Rowan County North Carolina where he resided during the revolutionary War & for many years after and about the year 1824 he removed to his present residence in Daviess County Kentucky. This applicant has no documentary evidence to prove his said Service and hereto annexed is Testimony of Samuel Calhoon, Clergyman & James W. “Family Cemeteries Offer Link to Past: Many Are Disappearing”,

By Joe Ford, Director Owensboro Area Museum:

No one knows how many tiny family cemeteries dot the country side around or in the Owensboro area. Occasionally, construction workers dig into these obscure final resting places of our early settlers, but most of them are lost forever. My wife is actively interested in genealogical research so last weekend we visited a few of the isolated graves in the Sorgho Community.

The burial area, known as the "Glenn" cemetery, is typical. On a high bank overlooking Panther Creek, it was in a peaceful location.

However, with the passage of years vandals had destroyed many of the stone markers that contained valuable information concerning the deceased. Birth and death records are often incomplete in the late 1700-s to early 1800's. These old markers often reveal family relationships, dates of birth or death.

A tiny cemetery on the John Rudy farm contains the stone honoring Captain George Calhoun, an officer in the Revolutionary Army in the Pennsylvania lines. He came to Kentucky with Judge Cotton (the first judge of Kentucky) and later married a daughter of the judge. Captain Calhoun died October 20, 1835 in Daviess County.

Many outstanding local persons have been able to trace their ancestry directly to this notable individual. His memorial marker will probably soon be obliterated and another page in the history of the development of our county will be lost forever.

If any of you know of these tiny little burial plots, please notify the museum. We are especially interested in those located in wooded areas or places not likely to be known to the general public. A member of the museum staff or genealogical society will check each reported site and salvage any remaining information. Do your bit to help preserve history. Help us locate these unrecorded cemeteries.

Thomas Clay

- Owensboro Messenger, 14 June 1931, p.1B & 9B, "Old River Road of Long Ago Recalled", by C. W. Bransford - "Closer to the river and just beyond the Crutcher Farm was that of Thomas Clay, who settled there in 1807 or 1808, he was the brother of Gen. Green Clay and uncle of Gen. Cassius M. Clay"
- Messenger-Inquirer, 5 October 1965 pp.4C & 5C ("One of State's Historic Clays Buried At Yelvington", Capt. Thomas Clay, a veteran of the American Revolution, was buried on the old Clay place near Yelvington, which is now known as the Jake Gerteisen farm; a cousin of Henry Clay; he died prior to 3 January 1825, which was the date his will was admitted to probate

- Messenger-Inquirer, 5 October 1975 p.11A, "Historic Homes of Owensboro", home of Thomas Clay on Highway 405, Thomas Clay, a soldier & captain in the Revolutionary War, came to Daviess County in 1812, cousin of John Clay, father of the well known statesman Henry Clay, an uncle of Cassius Marcellus Clay, famed Kentuckian of the Civil War, and grandfather of US Senator Thomas Clay McCreery, home is now owned by Mr. & Mrs. Jake Gerteisen
- Messenger-Inquirer, 14 February 1995 p.3S, "Community History", the countryside beyond Yellow Creek at Thruston was a panorama of pastoral splendor during antebellum days, it was in the section of Daviess County called the Beechwoods, known for its majestic beech trees and the fine plantations that lined the old river road from Owensboro to Hawesville, on one of the farms lived Thomas Clay, the first settler of the Thruston area and uncle of famous Kentucky abolitionist and orator Cassius Marcellus Clay; the land of Thomas Clay McCreery, who served in the U.S. Senate from 1868-1871 and 1873-1879, adjoined the plantation of his grandfather Thomas Clay, who had settled there in 1806 or 1807, Clay was a second cousin of Henry Clay, and brother of General Green Clay, father of Cassius, both Thomas and Green Clay were members of the convention which drafted Kentucky's second constitution in 1799; Mrs. Gladys Gerteisen, widow of former Daviess County commissioner Jake Gerteisen, lives on the Thomas Clay farm, the old McCreery house known in the old days as Beechwoods was torn down in the 1980s and lawyer Kirby Gordon has a new home on the hilltop where the old house stood
- Messenger-Inquirer, 13 July 2012 p.1B, "Property that's never been sold stays in the family", the descendants of Captain Thomas Clay, who fought in the Revolutionary War, and his wife, Mary, have a significant anniversary this year, two hundred years ago, several thousands acres of Daviess County were purchased by the captain. Through the years, parcels have been sold, but members of the sixth and seventh generations of the Clays live on a remaining 500 acres; "I don't think we'll have any type of celebration," said George Stuart, who has lived on his family's land all but four of his 62 years. After high school, he and his wife, Carolyn, lived in Lexington while he completed his degree in electrical engineering at the University of Kentucky. He is retired from BellSouth. "We may be the only family in Daviess County to have lived on the same land for 200 years. There are farms that are probably that old, but they've changed hands over the years," George Stuart said. There is a certain amount of pride in keeping the land in the family for so many years, he said. In addition to Stuart and his wife, his parents, Thomas and Nancy Stuart, live on the land, as well as his cousins Robert and Ann Stuart, and Sue Stuart Napper and her husband, Stewart. George Stuart said he finds it remarkable that the land that he shares with his relatives has never been sold. He said Clay started out with 4,000 acres in 1812 and that 2,000 of those were in eastern Daviess County. "The property was bounded by the Ohio River, what is now Wrights Landing Road, roughly along Kentucky 405 and Saur Road to Pup Creek near Carpenter's Lake, then back along Pup Creek to the Ohio River again," George Stuart said. "My dad is the family historian and has documented the family history along with his brother Alex, who lives in Phoenix," George Stuart said. Stuart said his grandfather, father and uncle ran a dairy on the farm for a number of years. "My dad delivered milk in town," George Stuart said. He has an original Stuart Dairy bottle stopper among family memorabilia. The Stuarts don't farm the land themselves anymore, but they lease it to farmers who grow corn and soybeans. "They have the best spot of us all," George Stuart said. His parents built their home on a hill in 1964 and previously lived in an older home on the property. "When Dad began building their house, I was 14 years old, and he more or less turned over the running of the farm to me," George Stuart said

- Messenger-Inquirer, 16 July 2012 p.1B, "Update of Wrights Landing Tudor-style home pleases couple", the question of moving rather than undertaking a major remodeling project never came up when and Stewart and Sue Stuart Napper decided to make some major changes in their 10-room Tudor style home on Wrights Landing Road, more than 30 years ago, the couple built their home on property that is part of the 200-year-old Stuart family farm, the land has been in the Stuart family for 200 years, in 1812, Sue Stuart Napper's ancestor Capt. Thomas Clay bought several thousand acres in Daviess County, and the Stuart family has retained 500 acres to this day. Several sixth- and seventh-generation descendants of Clay have homes on the property

- Messenger-Inquirer, 11 August 2016 p.1B, "Bailey Smith mostly forgotten today", one of the most colorful of the settlers of what became Daviess County; born in 1737 or 1738 in Virginia, came to Kentucky on 28 March 1775, as a surveyor with Richard Henderson's Transylvania Land Co., which claimed about half the land in what is now Kentucky, said to have been at Boonesborough, listed as "Capt. Smith," and was said to be among the men who rescued Jemima Boone (Daniel Boone's daughter) when she was captured by Indians; on 1 December 1778, Virginia granted Henderson's company 12 square miles of land below the mouth of Green River, he was one of men who decided to settle there on land that is now in Daviess County, but land records show that Smith had settled on 1,400 acres on a large creek on the north side of Green River about seven miles above the mouth of Panther Creek, which included three springs and a beech tree marked EHLH in 1775, the year he came to Kentucky, whether he actually lived on the land before 1778 isn't known; he testified in an 1807 land suit that "as early as 1776, I had a note of such a place as the Yellow Banks and a description of it, agreeing with the truth as I afterwards discovered in the beginning of March 1780", he was said to be among the men who was sent to survey where Virginia's western boundary was in 1779; family records say Smith was a major in George Rogers Clark's command when Clark took Fort Kaskaskia (in Illinois) from the French on 4 July 1778; he died on 19 October 1818, barely two years after his land became part of Daviess County, he was about 80 years old, he never married and apparently had no children
