Record sources for burials at Owensboro, KY's historic Elmwood and Rose Hill Cemeteries.

In 1868 in need of a new burial ground for the growing town of Owensboro the Rural Hill Cemetery Company, consisting of eighteen of the town's prominent citizens, purchased forty acres of ground, situated about one mile southeast of Owensboro, on the Hartford road (now Old Hartford Road). The new cemetery was christened Rural Hill Cemetery. In April 1869 the name was changed to Elmwood Cemetery. Several individuals, who died prior to the establishment of Elmwood Cemetery, were moved from other locations and re-interred at Elmwood.

On 25 June 1878 the stockholders of the Elmwood Cemetery Company voted to dissolve the company and transfer the property to Thomas Sidney Anderson (1842-1925). Anderson, a prominent Owensboro banker, was one of the original eighteen stockholders, who had established and operated the Elmwood Cemetery property (see article, “History of Owensboro’s Elmwood & Rose Hill Cemeteries”, by Jerry Long, , website West-Central Kentucky History & Genealogy, 2024). The cemetery and its assets were conveyed on the condition that Anderson should pay all debts of the cemetery, and that the grounds should be forever used as a burial-ground and kept in good order. The Owensboro Inquirer of 31 May 1903 (p14) reported that “the entire debt of the old company has been paid off and the cemetery is now on a firm footing.”

Thomas S. Anderson in 1900 established the Daviess County Bank & Trust Company. This bank and several others were forced to close in 1908 during a money panic. Anderson owed a large sum of money to the bank and a criminal case was brought against him. He was convicted of malfeasance and sentenced to serve eighteen months in the Eddyville penitentiary. He served one year and was pardoned in May 1911. After being released from prison he located in Tennessee and later in North Carolina. He died on 10 November 1925 in Candler, NC and was buried in the New Market Cemetery at New Market, TN.

In 1916 to pay the debts of T. S. Anderson the Daviess County Circuit Court ordered the Elmwood Cemetery property to be sold at a public auction. On 15 May 1916 the Owensboro monument dealer, George Mishel & Sons, purchased Elmwood Cemetery.

In 1911 Robert E., George C. & John E. Massie purchased from Mary A. Craycroft 46 & 1/10 acres on the south side of the Hartford Road, opposite Elmwood Cemetery. The Owensboro Messenger of 1 June 1916 (p1) announced that a new cemetery, Rose Hill Cemetery, was to be established on the Massie property. The spellings of “Rose Hill” and of “Rosehill” have since about equally appeared in public records.

The adjoining Elmwood & Rose Hill Cemeteries have undergone several subsequent transfers of ownership. The two cemeteries operated under separate ownerships until 1984. In 1980 George William Little, Jr. purchased Elmwood Cemetery and in 1984 he acquired ownership of Rose Hill Cemetery. The cemeteries continued under local ownership until 1996 when George W. Little & wife, Brenda Little, sold the two cemeteries. Since 2003 David Sullivan's Saber Management LLC has owned and operated the cemeteries under the singular banner of “Rosehill – Elmwood Cemetery & Mausoleum.”

There is no comprehensive record of interments in Elmwood Cemetery that survives. Burials at Elmwood and Rose Hill Cemeteries are recorded in the following sources:

- The cemetery records at the office of Rosehill – Elmwood Cemetery & Mausoleum (1300 Old Hartford Road Owensboro, KY) commence in April 1914. When I visited the cemetery office in 1982 I was told that the records at Elmwood do not start until 1914. No explanation of why the cemetery’s owners have no record of prior burials has been established. Some have theorized that the earlier records were lost in a fire. However, no notice of a fire was found published in the Owensboro newspapers circa 1914. I believe that the loss of the early records probably is more likely due to the departure of the cemetery’s owner, Thomas S. Anderson, from Owensboro, and the forced sale of the Elmwood Cemetery property in 1916. Upon his parole from prison in 1911 Anderson moved to Tennessee. It seems likely that what records then existed for the cemetery went with him to his new home. In 1914 Anderson was still the owner of Elmwood and was no longer a resident of Owensboro.

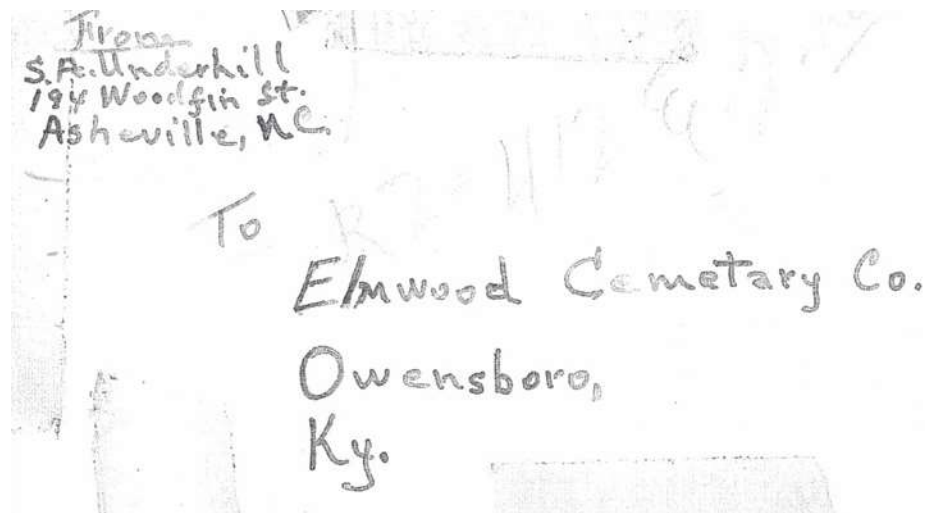

Rosehill – Elmwood Cemetery & Mausoleum, 1300 Old Hartford Road Owensboro, KY

In 2009 a printout of the Rosehill – Elmwood Cemetery office records from April 1914 to May 1999 was donated to the Kentucky Room, at the Daviess County Public Library, in Owensboro, KY (library call #KR 976.9864 Elmw). These records record the name, date of burial, age, cemetery name (represented by an E or R), section & lot number. Other details may be given on the original records. The cemetery office has a plat showing the sections and lot numbers in the cemeteries.

- The “Register of Interments, Elmwood Cemetery, 1877-1885 & 1900-1902”, was donated to the Kentucky Room, at the Daviess County Public Library in April 2008 by Connie (Maxey) Payne Enright (1945-2022). At the time of the donation no details of how she came to possess the historic document were recorded. In trying to discover more about the register I called Mrs. Enright’s son, Ashley Payne, of Owensboro. Mr. Payne said he thought his mother may have gotten the register from his late brother, Samuel (Sam) Gordon Payne (1968-2002), who during the 1990’s worked several years at Elmwood Cemetery, when it was owned by the Littles. On 6 November 2024 I called Mrs. Brenda Little, one of the former owners of Elmwood & Rose Hill Cemeteries. I asked if she remembers Sam Payne, who worked at Elmwood during the 1990’s. She remembers his name but nothing else about him. I told her about the early book of interments at Elmwood that was donated to the Kentucky Room at the Daviess County Public Library by Sam Payne’s mother, Connie Enright, in 2008. Mrs. Little knew nothing about the book and was positive that it was not at the Elmwood office when they owned the cemetery. I think that Mrs. Connie Enright, who had worked as an archivist, apparently realized the historic significance of the register and decided to turn it over to the library, where it could be preserved.

On the last page of the interment register was a copy of an envelope addressed to Elwood Cemetery Co., Owensboro, KY by “S. A. Underhill, 194 Woodfin St., Asheville, NC.” The letter was sent by Sidney Anderson Underhill (1895-1988). He was a son of William A. Underhill & Annie Anderson and grandson of Thomas Sidney Anderson, Elmwood Cemetery's former owner. Possibly S. A. Anderson at some point was returning the cemetery's register to Elmwood Cemetery, in Owensboro.

A transcription and index of the Register, compiled by Jerry Long follows on pages 6-70. A copy of the original document is included in the volume, Elmwood Cemetery: Early Records and History (Jerry Long, 2015), in the Kentucky Room at the Daviess County Public Library (library call #KR 976.9864 Elmw).

The first interments given in the Register from 4 November 1877 thru 16 January 1878 were published in the newspaper, Owensboro Weekly Messenger (27 November 1878 p3, 4 December 1878 p3, 8 January 1879 p3 & 12 February 1879 p3). The first of these editions has the following introduction – “Interments in Elmwood Cemetery: Below we give a correct list of burials in Elmwood, near Owensboro, for the year ending Oct. 31, 1878, taken from the register of interments.” The newspapers listing gave the name and date of interment. The original Register included the record categories – name, date of interment, nativity (place), residence, occupation, born (date), disease, physician, undertaker and remarks. At the end of the 1885 interments in the Register and prior to the 1900 interments there is a gap in which it was written “see other book”.

- Albert Jefferson Davis (1924-2002) about 1985 compiled a listing of the monuments in Elmwood Cemetery. A copy is in the Kentucky Room at the Daviess County Public Library (318 pages, library call #KR 976.9864 Davi). A copy was also given to the Rosehill – Elmwood Cemetery office. In his, and in listings by others, due to the condition of many of the monuments there are many misinterpretations. Due to the complexity of the cemetery's layout many monuments were missed in his listing.
- Albert Jefferson Davis (1924-2002) in 1976 made a transcription of the monuments at Rose Hill Cemetery. The genealogy group, West-Central Kentucky Family Research Association, of Owensboro, KY, in 1977 published his listing under the title of Daviess County, Kentucky Cemeteries, Volume III (McDowell Publications, 147 pages). A copy of the volume is in the Kentucky Room, at the Daviess County Public Library (library call # KR 976.9864 Davi)
- Michael James Edgeworth (1927-1981) recorded a partial listing of some older monuments in Elmwood Cemetery that was published in twelve installments in the Kentucky Ancestors, periodical of the Kentucky Historical Society, during 1966-1979. A copy of these can be found in the Kentucky Room, Daviess County Public Library in Owensboro, KY. In 2008 the West-Central Kentucky Family Research Association, of Owensboro, KY published Edgeworth's listing in Elmwood Cemetery A Partial List (McDowell Publications, 155 pages; copy in the Kentucky Room at the Daviess County Public Library, call # KR 976.9864 West). The Edgeworth listings were combined with some listings made by members of the association in part of sections A, D & E. The listings by the association ceased when the cemetery officials asked them to not continue.

- The “Owensboro Area Obituary Index” on the Daviess County Public Library’s website (<https://obits.dcpiblibrary.org/>, can be searched by entering the keywords “Elmwood” or “Rose Hill” in the cemetery field on the database’s advanced search page. Currently the database has about 6,000 entries for Elmwood Cemetery and about 4,000 entries for Rose Hill Cemetery.
- Other burials in Elmwood and Rose Hill Cemeteries can also be learned by researching on the Internet websites – FindAGrave.com (free site); Owensboro, KY newspapers, 1862-2024, can be searched by keyword on newspapers.com (subscription site); and the Kentucky Death Certificates 1911-1965 on Ancestry.com (subscription site).

Register of Interments at Elmwood Cemetery
For the years of 1877-1885 and 1900-1902:

REGISTER OF INTERMENTS

NO. OF INTERMENT.	DATE OF INTERMENT.	NAME.	NATIVITY.	RESIDENCE.	OCCUPATION.	BORN.
-------------------	--------------------	-------	-----------	------------	-------------	-------

ELMWOOD CEMETERY.

DIED.	DISEASE.	PHYSICIAN.	UNDERTAKER.	REMARKS.
-------	----------	------------	-------------	----------

The Register was recorded in chronological order by the date of interment. Data categories were labeled as – date of internment; name; nativity; residence; occupation; born; died; disease; physician; undertaker; and remarks. Beginning on the second page of the Register the header for the physician category was marked out and “parents” was penciled in. In the following transcription of the Register by Jerry Long the data for each person was recorded in the order of:

1. name & parents in parenthesis if entered;
2. death date;
3. interment date;
4. birth date;
5. place of birth;
6. residence;
7. occupation;
8. disease;
9. location in cemetery – lot # and cemetery section.

In the entries for each individual in the transcription the above nine data categories are separated by a semi-colon. Physicians and undertakers were not included in the transcription. The word blank was used when nothing was entered in a data category. Several notes about removals from other cemeteries are entered after the interment date. Entries for each person in the Register extended across two pages. The pages in the original Register were labeled 1a-1b, 2a-2b, etc. thru 27a-27b. In the following transcription (pages 6-52) and index (pages 53-70) the page numbers 1a-1b, etc. (recorded in blue) were utilized not the page numbers (in black) at the bottom of each page.
